

Drugs & Alcohol Awareness Pre-Teens

Education Is The Key to Prevention

It is normal for pre-teens to begin experimenting with adult-only behaviors, such as trying drugs, alcohol and tobacco. These behaviors can be influenced by the media, low self image and peer pressure. It can be difficult to say no, even when they know better.

The Kidproof Drug and Alcohol Awareness for Pre-Teens helps adolescents learn the dangers of using drugs and alcohol, identify with the symptoms and feelings that may lead to drug use, and learn the skills needed to deal with peer pressure that often leads to drug experimentation. This is an active program that encourages group work and problem solving to help students develop healthy lifelong decision making skills.

Through real stories and group based activities, students learn:

- How different drugs can affect the brain and body
- Dispel myths about drug use
- Learn how to cope with stress and low self esteem without using drugs
- How to say no and handle peer pressure

• Plus much more

The Kidproof Drug and Alcohol Awareness for Pre-Teens is an essential part of teaching 10 to 14 year olds to make wiser decisions for themselves, rather than giving in to peer pressure.
